

Museum of AI Capability Statement

About Us

The Museum of AI is a Woman-owned Small Business (WOSB) that creates experiential learning about Artificial Intelligence: Showing how AI transforms daily work, business and policy decision making, and professional talent development. Training experiences are designed for non-technical government, business, technology, and healthcare professionals. Topics include AI operational readiness including personnel requirements, workflow integration, ethics, and bias.

Contact

Tracy Altman
email: frondesk@museumofai
phone: 415-985-4479
site: <https://museumofai>

Corporate Data

Ugly Research, Inc. DBA Museum of AI
1700 Bassett Street Unit 2018
Denver, CO 80202

DUNS: 117356776

CAGE: 8WQL9

NAICS Codes:

611430 - Professional and Management Development Training

611420 - Computer Training

511210 - Software Publishers

Accept Credit Cards? Yes

Services and Products

The Museum of AI creates learning experiences ranging from webinars and executive education to immersive storytelling, escape rooms, video games, and AI Fitness training: Strengthening the skills required connecting Artificial Intelligence to workflow and outcomes.

Differentiators

The Museum of AI staff includes data scientists, artists, business executives, educators, policy analysts, and AI developers that have:

- 14+ years developing adult learning programs
- 15+ years delivering enterprise software training
- 12+ years decision analysis performance
- 25+ art installations
- 10+ produced scripts, live & virtual
- 42 installed escape rooms
- + thousands of lines of code

Past Performance

Please contact Jeff Altman (jeff@museumofai, 303-905-9043) to discuss past performance.